Subject: Constitution of Departmental Anti Ragging Monitoring Cell

The new session is starting from July 2016, therefore, all the Chairpersons/HODs/Incharges of the University Teaching Departments are requested to constitute departmental Anti Ragging Monitoring Cell consisting of three regular faculty members of their respective departments preferably one lady teacher, where available, as directed in Raghvan Committee Report to check ragging activities in the Educational Institutions. This cell should also include senior boy and a girl student. After constitution of the cell, a copy of the same may be sent to the undersigned by 24.06.2016 positively, so that the same could be uploaded on the University Website on 29.06.2016. This may be kindly be treated as MOST URGENT and DATE BOUND.

It is also suggested that the Chairpersons and other senior faculty members may address the senior students in their respective classes in the starting of new session not to rag/harass their juniors rather they should have helping attitude towards them. If any student found indulging in indisciplinary activities, strict action will be initiated against him/her. The Chairpersons may also address freshers about the awareness of ragging, so that the freshers inform the incident of ragging, if any, to them.
